Here Is What Transpired At Monday's Meeting Of The Palm Beach County Commission

A 30-day deadline to work out right of way betweens holding up construction of Boynton Beach West Road was set this week by Boynton Beach Commissioners and the County Commission.

Mayor J. J. Mahoney, who appeared before the county board with other representatives of Boynton Beach, asked the county to try and work out right of way settlements before the deadline and if that failed, to proceed with improvement of the road on what is known as the "old location."

The project has been in the mill for some time, during which the location has been changed and a number of conferences held with land owners along the new location in an attempt to procure needed right of way.

The city and county commission heard Monday from county right of way agents, that, one landholder along the new route had not furnished a deed to his land because he objects to elevation of the proposed road and that two other land owners were holding up deeds until concessions are granted by the county.

Mahoney said he understood funds for the project were being used for other county work—a statement which drew strong denial from the county board.

Chairman Lake Lytal explained that funds for the project were in an escrow account and could be used for no other purpose.

Reports to the Boynton Beach delegation also included a review of plans for a bridge on Seacrest Blvd., which will be let for bid May 11 and a report that further improvement of U. S. Highway 1 through Boynton Beach is scheduled for the upcoming state road department budget.

In an effort to determine future needs of the public from a stand point of office space, parking facilities and some right of way, the county commission this week took steps to secure a firm to conduct a survey and try to forecast some of these needs in the next 20 years.

Commissioner Kenneth Foster opened the way for the projected study, asking the board to take steps now to secure needed right of way for building approach ramps to the west end of Flagler Memorial Bridge in West Palm Beach. Foster said there is need of immediate action, in that developers plan to fill the lake at this point and to construct buildings on the fill.

The commission voted to immediately ask the state road department to draft a design for the traffic ramps and to determine right of way needed so the county board could proceed to acquire land needed for the project.

The board also voted to request West Palm Beach Commissioners to delay issuing permits of any kind until the design was furnished by the state.

Commissioner Roy Michael joined Foster in winning board approval for a survey to determine what type and how much office space would be needed to serve the county seat in the next 20 years. Michael pointed out that with the county's fast growing population, it is impossible without a survey, to determine the amount of office space that would be needed to take care of future needs. County Engineer Steve Middleton was instructed to make preliminary plans for the survey.

Meantime the county board voted to ask the county school board to delay spending any funds for improving school board headquarters until the survey has been made.

The county is presently seeking legislation to permit the board to construct a combined office building and parking garage on county property adjacent to the court house where the school board office is located.

We would all agree that money is one of the commodities about which we cannot say: "A little of that goes a long way."

Pick your savings target and shoot straight for it!

A home . . . financial security . . . a business of your own. Important savings targets like these cost money—a substantial sum—and more than most of us have. But here's a sure way for you to score a bull's-eye and walk off with the big prize you want.

The secret of saving is system. And the simplest, most automatic saving system ever devised is the Payroll Savings Plan. Best of all, you do more than save through Payroll Savings. You invest your money, too, and make it grow. Here's how it works:

Tell your company pay office how much you want to save each week. Then each pay period that amount will be put aside for you before you have a chance to spend it. Your money will go automatically into U. S. Series E Savings Bonds.

Because Savings Bonds earn good interest—3% compounded semiannually when held to maturity (9 years and 8 months)—they're soon worth much more than you've invested in them. And your Bonds will continue to pay this same good interest as long as 19 years and 8 months. That means a return of up to 80% more than you originally paid.

And remember this. There's no guesswork or chance about the Payroll Savings Plan. It's absolutely safe and sure. Invest just $7.50 a week. In 5 years you'll have Savings Bonds worth $2053 in cash; in 10 years, $4448.

Even if you've never been able to save before, this plan is guaranteed to work for you. So sign up today for Payroll Savings where you work—or invest in Bonds regularly where you bank.

Safest County Is So Recognized

McIntosh appeared before the county commission Monday to present an award to the board and to county employees who have set an outstanding record of safety and accident prevention during the past year.

McIntosh told the commission that Palm Beach County was the first county in the state that has made any accomplishment of note in the industrial safety field.

He commended the commission for providing the leadership which lead to the record of safety and in sponsoring a course of accident prevention and safety for its employees. The course was presented under the direction of Steve Roach, division supervisor for the state commission.

Seafood Leader In Food Parade

When the state observes the annual Florida Products Festival April 15-25, Florida seafood will be a leader in the food parade.

Sarah Albersson, home economist for the State Board of Conservation, said that she has sent personally tested seafood menus to every Florida newspaper. She mentioned such specialties as her fish salad mold, Florida fish and ham with mushroom sauce, baked fish Florida.

Mrs. Albersson called attention to this state's leadership in the supply of commercial fish—fourth in the nation, second in shrimp production. The home economist cited the variety of Florida seafoods: oysters, crabs, turtles, clams, lobsters, as well as more varieties of fish than can be found anywhere.

About 20,000 Floridians depend upon commercial fishing for a livelihood, said Mrs. Albersson, and it is a $30 million yearly business. Long before oranges were the big money crop of the state, small fishing enterprises were carried on around such old port cities as Pensacola, St. Augustine, Key West and Ft. Myers.

As one further note on activities of the State Board of Conservation, Director Ernest Mitts said the goal of the department is wise use of salt water products, consistent with a steady, unending supply.

Water Works Plan Nearly Completed

The rehabilitation program authorized last year by the Pahokee City Council for the City Waterworks System has progressed on schedule with the use of funds earmarked for this purpose in the current budget and to date it has not been necessary to borrow funds for this work, according to Waterworks Commissioner Billy Ray Mosley.

Waterworks Superintendent Robert J. Schroder estimates the authorized work is 75 percent completed at a cost of $20,092. This includes the installation of two new metal filter tanks to replace obsolete wooden tanks, new control valves and fresh filter sand and gravel for all filter tanks, installation of a new elevator with electric hoist for feeding lime to the uplift clarifier, and the rebuilding of the plant's aerator.

The City has purchased two lots for future expansion of the waterworks system. One of these lots, 120 by 130 feet, formerly owned by Dr. Charles E. Creel, adjoins the grounds of the plant on the north and the other, located near the Dunson residence on East Main, was purchased as a probable site for a new water tower. Future plans call for a new 200,000-gallon elevated tank, a clear well on the plant grounds for additional water storage and the laying of 400 feet of eight-inch water mains in certain sections to increase the pressure.

At the present time with the packing house operations in full swing the waterworks plant is being manned around the clock in three eight-hour shifts, Superintendent Schroder said.

Migrant Group Ponders Problems

The Pahokee-Canal Point Migrant Assistance Committee at the April meeting, with Chairman Wiley Tillis presiding, pondered the urgent need of a motor vehicle for the transportation of medical cases to East Coast clinics for special treatment. The Rev. Roberts Group Is Making Effort To Hold The Tax Line

TALLAHASSEE—Palm Beach County Representative Emmett Roberts said here this week his committee on Appropriations is still fighting, and will continue to fight, to hold the tax and appropriations line at $700,000,000 for the next two years.

Rep. Roberts chairman of Appropriations Sub-committee studying the budgets of State Cabinet Officials, including the Governor, Treasurer, Comptroller, Secretary of State, Agriculture Department, Attorney General and Supt. of Education.

The committee has been in daily sessions. Roberts said he hopes to see an appropriations measure clear the Legislature which will "hold the line without cutting into essential services."

Representative Roberts expressed regret at losing the 1960 Legislative Caucus to Pensacola and cited the "unfortunate and untimely announcement of a suit in Lower East Coast Courts on reapportionment" as a factor in the House of Representatives' decision to meet next year in Pensacola.

The Palm Beach delegation is presently studying some 120 local bills, for preparation and introduction, probably starting this week.

Most of them are non-controversial measures on which advertising requirements have been fulfilled.

Rep. Roberts said some obvious confusion has arisen over the report of an interim committee studying educational problems. He said some curtailment of adult education may result, but "I do not believe vocational training of an essential nature will be affected."

Roberts said the session will be under full steam this coming week, and invited "my constituents to contact me on any problems."

Assessment Law Draws Criticism

A petition charging that Palm Beach County was being discriminated against in assessment of real property was received this week by the county commission.

The petition, drawn by the Palm Beach County Property Owners and Managers Association, protested the 100 percent valuation which they said was placed on county property after Gov. Leroy Collins threatened removal of any county assessor who failed to follow state assessment laws.

The petition pointed out that Palm Beach County Tax Assessor James Owens was the lone official to carry out the state mandate but that tax assessors from other counties hadn't been removed from office for not levying the 100 percent valuation.

The commission decided to have photo stat copies of the petition made and furnished to Palm Beach County's legislative delegation.

In other actions this week the county board:

Instructed its engineering department to cooperate with the Lake Worth postoffice in setting up a system of house numbers for mail delivery in that city's western suburbs.

Took under advisement a request from Sun Benches, Inc., for a five-year franchise for putting roadside benches on county owned right of way.

Heard that bids for construction of Lake Shore Drive in Canal Point will be opened at Tallahassee April 23 and authorized Commissioner Paul Rardin and Roy Michael to attend the road department meeting on that date.

Approved a request the County Engineer Steve Middleton represent both the county and the Resources Development Board at a beach erosion meeting at Sarasota April 16. Middleton is slated to appear on the program during the meeting to discuss the new sand transfer plant in Palm Beach.

Christian Science Group Of Canal Point

The spiritual relationship of God and man will be set forth Sunday at Christian Science services. Selections to be read from the Bible, in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Doctrine of Atonement," include this from 1 John (4:15, 16): "Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God. And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us, God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him." Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include (18:1-5): "Atonement is the exemplification of man's unity with God, whereby man reflects divine Truth, Life, and Love. Jesus of Nazareth taught and demonstrated man's oneness with the Father; and for this we owe him endless homage."

Annual Class Play April 23-24

The Pahokee High School Senior Class will present the class play, "More Than Meets the Eye," in the high school auditorium Thursday and Friday nights, April 23-24. The plot of the three-act comedy by Fred Carmichael revolves around the adventures of Stanley Nichols, a young writer of children's stories under the pen name of "Grandma Letty?" who takes a year's leave of absence to write the "great American novel" only to find himself the bewildered recipient of a very embarrassing award, "Grandmother of the Year." George McElhenny plays the part of Stanley; Others in the cast are Judy Platt, Cyndy Friend, Judy Cunningham, Nancy Thomas, Carmen Salvatore, III, Donald Thompson, Jean Kay Friend, Wynette Sheffield, Carroll Watson and Gene Parnell. Miss Barbara Myatt is director of the play. Sue Young, Joanne Darden and Betty Anderson are serving as prompters.

Mrs. Barrett was hostess during the serving of refreshments following the meeting.

O'Connell Home Circle Meet Scene

The Ione Patterson Circle of the Canal Point Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Frank O'Connell.

The subject for the program was, Positive living on the Sabbath Day. Mrs. J. S. Evans chose for her talk scriptures from Matthew of Jesus conduct on the Sabbath Day. Jesus went into the synagogue to worship. He observed social fellowship by dining with friends and his deeds of mercy by healing the sick.

Plans were made to observe April 26 as Ione Patterson Day for our missionary society. A gift will be sent to Mrs. Patterson who is now retired from her missionary work in Africa and now lives in Norcross, Ga. Mrs. Patterson first went to Africa as a missionary in 1914 with her husband Scott Patterson. They trained many of the political leaders in Africa for special Christian work during the time that they operated the Baptist training school.

Cake and coffee were served by the hostess to 14 circle members and one visitor Mrs. Jessie Settle or Russellville, Ky., who is a house guest of Col. and Mrs. J. S. Evans.

City Takes Steps—

Curry in the Police Department. Increases in hospitalization insurance benefits for all city employees were authorized.

Upon a request by Mrs. Thomas Elliott, room representative of the Pahokee High School Senior Class, the seniors were granted permission to rope off part of East Main Street in front of the Pahokee Motor Company building on the night of May 22 for a street dance the class is sponsoring. Police Chief Leon Guthrie was asked to supervise the roping off of this street.

Morris B. Simpson made application for a 10-year tax exemption on a proposed new building to contain 11,288 square feet of floor space which he plans to erect at 113 East Main for a supermarket. Council President George Tucker, Jr., and Councilmen Charles Brown and Hugo Roe were named on a special committee to study the application and report at the next meeting.

The rebuilding of the sidewalk on Bacon Point Road between the First Baptist Church and the City Park was authorized.

Fire Destroys—

trucks carried in their auxiliary tanks were sufficient to check the spread of the fire until the larger truck was able to return to the Pahokee water main and bring back 500 gallons more of water with which the firemen were able to bring the fire, threatening the Hooks' residence, two apartment buildings and the grocery store, under control in spite of a stiff north wind that was blowing at the time. Everything in the house was destroyed with the building and nothing was covered by insurance.

It was a cool morning with the temperature in the lower 60's and it is believed by Fire Chief Marvin Levins that the lighted kerosene beaten in the living room was the cause of the tragic fire.

The two children, both pupils at the Canal Point School, are being treated at the Everglades Memorial Hospital.

Pahokee Scouts In —

White City Troop from the Fort Pierce District won the highest number of points, 787 out of a possible 1,000.

The high achievement of Pahokee Troop 628 at the Camporee was attributed by the two scoutmasters to the outstanding leadership of Senior Patrol Leader John Lloyd Hundley and his assistant, Patrol Leaders Robert Boe, Billy Boe, Johnny Vandegrift, Jimmy Vandegrift, Roger Simonson and Buddy Culberson who were in complete charge of the Scouts during the competitive events.

Troop 628, which has won many high honors since its reactivation and reorganization by Scoutmaster Louis Mims several years ago, is sponsored by the Pahokee Lions Club. Lloyd Hundley is chairman of the troop committee.

DCT Banquet Held Community Bldg.

Diversified Cooperative Training students at Pahokee High School were hosts at a DCT Employer-Employment Banquet held in the Community Building at Canal Point Friday night. This banquet is an annual expression of thanks to business and industry within the Pahokee-Canal Point area which is offering job training to cooperating FHS Junior or Senior students who are taking the elective DCT course.

Boyd Vorhees, president of the DCT Club, introduced Shirley Hignite who welcomed the guests for the club and, in turn, introduced Mrs. Florence Keen, an employer guest, who acted as master of ceremonies.

Mrs. Keen introduced the speaker of the evening, Curtis Chase, Glades manager for the Florida Power and Light Company, who said the DCT student derives a better knowledge of economics and personality development as a result of rubbing elbows with true life situations, that he is a better student during his DCT training because he needs to know things and seeks out this knowledge during his time in school classes. "Any School program which develops the individual employee is beneficial to the employer, and it goes without saying that things which benefit the employer and the employee also are of great help to the community," Mr. Chase said.

In commenting on the DCT program Principal Brooks Henderson said, "DCT has broadened the Pahokee High School Curriculum. We needed this program for some of the boys and girls. It is a good program and has been very stimulating to the participating students."

The DCT students were introduced by Jane Watson, the employer guests by the student employees, school administrative guests by A. R. Harrington, and other special guests by Mrs. Keen. The program of entertainment was presented by Wayne Elliott, Shirley Hignite and Glenda Faye Russom. Others on the program were the Rev. Robert A. Shelley and Gene Dixon.

Employer guests included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sasser, Mr. and Mrs. Manning I. Keen, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Geiger, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Mindlin, Mr. and Mrs. James Moore, Charles Hitchcock, James Usher, Curtis Chase, J. G. Weeks, Mrs. Lily Chance and Ted B. Wilson.

William P. Danenburg, DCT Area State Supervisor, was a guest. Other guests including school administrative personnel, civic leaders and their wives or husbands were Henry Earwood, Mr. and Mrs. Kennah Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Scott, James L. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Noma Norman, Mrs. Robert Lampi, Mayor and Mrs. P. S. Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hillier, Mrs. Aly Okie, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Apsigren, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Friend, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Sears, Rev. and Mrs. Robert A. Shelley, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Dufresne and Miss Julia Mathis.

There are 187 DCT programs being carried out in Florida High Schools at the present time with 3,200 students participating. The DCT course at Pahokee High School was first introduced at the start of the current school year and is under the direction of James L. Turner, co-ordinator. During the one or two years the high school student is entitled to participate in the DCT program as may take two special classes. One class is specific in content as each student studies that information which pertains to his job and will be helpful to him in his future development. The second class is of a more general nature in which the students learn about social security, insurance, banking, parliamentary procedure, public speaking, grooming, personality development and the like.

C. E. Williams Is Lions Club Speaker

C. E. Williams, Pahokee insurance agent, was guest speaker at the dinner meeting of the Canal Point Lions Club Monday night. Introduced by J. W. Repper, the speaker explained some of the bills that are being introduced during the current session of the State Legislature which if passed, would tend to improve safety conditions on State highways.

O. H. Sheppard, chairman of the nominating committee, turned over to President H. H. Sears the recommendations of the committee for a new slate of club officers which must be elected before the State Lions Convention at Jacksonville, May 14-17. Special recognition was given at the meeting to Lion H. G. Boynton and Mrs. Boynton, who was a dinner guest, the occasion being their 45th wedding anniversary.

The Rev. and Mrs. James E. Boyd had as recent guest the Rev. and Mrs. John Bandy of Greenville, S. C., Miss Leah Gray of Morrisville, Tenn., and Miss Helen Shippe of Bronson.

FLORIDA COUNTIES

GLADES COUNTY

County Seat,
Moore Haven

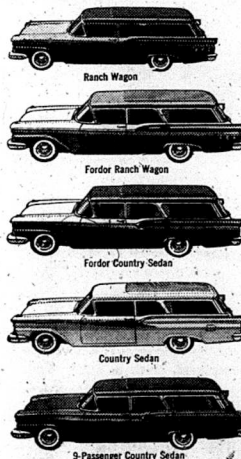

Glades County came into existence in 1921... one of the 5 counties born of the division of DeSoto County. County Seat, Moore Haven, elected the first woman Mayor in the South. Although Beef cattle production and dairying are principal industries, truck farming, beekeeping and poultry play an important part in the economy of Glades County. This hunters' paradise includes tremendous wild turkey breeding grounds, "Chalo Nitka" (Seminole for "Bass Day") is held annually to pay homage to the great abundance of bass in Lake Okechobee.

In progressive Glades County, and throughout Florida, the United States Brewers Foundation works constantly to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions. Believing that strict law enforcement serves the best interest of the people of Florida, the Foundation stresses close cooperation with the Armed Forces, law enforcement and governing officials in its continuing "self-regulation" program.
